Temporary license for military spouse - TO BE RESCINDED.

- (A) In accordance with division (C) of section 4743.04 of the Revised Code, an individual whose spouse is on active military duty in this state is eligible for a temporary military spousal license to practice as an athletic trainer in Ohio.
- (B) An application for a temporary military spousal license shall include, but not be limited to, the following:
  - (1) Proof that the applicant is married to an active duty member of the armed forces of the United States;
  - (2) Proof that the applicant holds a valid unrestricted license to practice as an athletic trainer in another jurisdiction of the United States;
  - (3) Proof that the applicant's spouse is assigned to a duty station in Ohio and that the applicant is also assigned to a duty station in Ohio pursuant to the spouse's official active duty military orders; and
  - (4) The application fee of one hundred dollars.
- (C) A temporary military spousal license shall expire six months after the date of issuance and is not renewable.
- (D) The fee to submit an application in accordance with rule 4755-43-01 of the Administrative Code shall be waived if the full license is issued prior to the expiration date of the temporary military spousal license.
